

Our Shared Unitarian Universalist Values

Justice. We work to be diverse multicultural Beloved Communities where all thrive. We covenant to dismantle racism and all forms of systemic oppression. We support the use of inclusive democratic processes to make decisions within our congregations, our Association, and society at large.

Equity. We declare that every person is inherently worthy and has the right to flourish with dignity, love, and compassion. We covenant to use our time, wisdom, attention, and money to build and sustain fully accessible and inclusive communities.

Transformation. We adapt to the changing world. We covenant to collectively transform and grow spiritually and ethically. Openness to change is fundamental to our Unitarian and Universalist heritages, never complete and never perfect.

Pluralism. We celebrate that we are all sacred beings, diverse in culture, experience, and theology. We covenant to learn from one another in a free, responsible search for truth and meaning. We embrace differences and commonalities with Love, curiosity, and respect.

Interdependence. We honor the interdependent web of all existence. With reverence for the great web of life, we acknowledge our place in it. We covenant to protect Earth and all beings from exploitation. We will nurture sustainable relationships of care, respect, mutuality and justice.

Generosity. We cultivate a spirit of gratitude and hope. We covenant to freely and compassionately share our faith, presence, and resources. Our generosity connects us to one another in relationships of interdependence and mutuality.

Love is the power that holds us together and is at the center of our shared values.
